

IUPUI University Library / Indianapolis Museum of Art Community Project Instructional Unit License

I am a teacher and have participated in the IUPUI University Library and the Indianapolis Museum of Art Community Project.

In order to help accomplish the objectives of the Project, I hereby give to the director of the Project, acting on behalf of Indiana University, a nonexclusive and irrevocable license in perpetuity to use any materials that I may create pursuant to the Project and deliver to the director of the Project, the right to use the Materials as follows:

- 1. Post on the project website
- 2. Display and use in promotional materials including project related brochures and cd-roms
- 3. Display and use in presentations at professional conferences, meetings and such
- 4. Display and use in lifelong learning programs and activities in schools, libraries, and related educational settings including homeschool audiences
- 5. To distribute and share among educational/lifelong learning audiences for adaptation and use in instructional activities and programs by teachers, librarians, students and homeschool audiences
- 6. To update and/or revise materials for future use as applicable to the educational purpose

I understand that this license is irrevocable and that Indiana University may authorize The Indiana Humanities Council and others to use the Materials in a manner consistent with the objectives of the Community Project. I understand that I may otherwise hold the copyright to the Materials that I produce, and that Indiana University's rights under this agreement will not prevent my further use of the Materials in a manner that does not conflict with this agreement.

Name

Date